The text book needs to be updated. It seemed to have a volume of information that was out of date. Additionally, the text book, in my opinion, was poor at best. The charts and tables were not referenced and the data could not be traced to its source.

Great guy! Truly one of the nicest people I have ever met

Professor Le Vine is one of my favorite professors at New Paltz. He was so understanding and helpful when I didn't understand a topic in class. I really liked the coursework given before each test. It was really helpful when I was studying because I knew exactly what to study, there wasn't any surprises on the test.

The course was very informative even though I did not need it other than to fill credits. A word to the wise though please do not jumble up the questions in the course work. The first two course works were fine and they helped me study and learn the material but the third was very confusing and frustrating as I had to scavenge for the answers instead of going through the material one chapter after the other.

I thought professor Le Vine was great- the only thing I would want to see more of would be student involvement during class. It was a lot of powerpoint lecture and I think if there was a way to engage the students more it would be worth looking into. However, with that said, he was a great and effective professor!
