 If the coursework is supposed to be a guideline for out test, the material on the test should be from the coursework

 No suggestions, this course was taught very effectively.

 Overall, Dr. Le Vine is a fantastic professor. He is incredibly knowledgeable, engaging, organized, interesting, reasonable, and extremely fair and accommodating. I didn't have considerable interest in the subject at the outset and it was also an 8:00 am class, so this is saying a lot.

 Great glass.

 Very kind person. Gave a reasonable amount of work which well prepared us for the test. I felt he wasted a lot of paper and sometimes it was hard to find things in the lecture notes. My only suggestion is you should give the packets out by chapter not per class, would save paper so you cover everything and then when we are doing the course work it is easier to find it.

 This professor created a very healthy learning environment.

 There was a lot of interaction and he would answer any and all questions. He's hella cool and I'm taking him again next semester

 Overall i think he is great. Provides every opportunity to do well in his class and is understanding about personal aspects. Great teacher and extremely organized. Loves class discussion and so do most students. Tries to get everyone involved

.....
 Yes, this is the second time I have had a class with Scott as professor and he is fantastic.

 Great experience, professor Le Vine is one of the nicest instructors at this university and gives many opportunities to succeed and do well in his course.

 This course was wonderful. Dr. Le Vine's structure is great—I wouldn't change a thing, (except the hour of the day during which I took it).

 Always willing to help and answer questions. Was a comfortable environment. It was a little rough having it as an 8am especially since he has a soft and calm voice but I survived. Encouraged to ask questions if we didn't understand.
