Excellent Professor and very interesting course

More student engagement would make this course even more interesting than it already is.

I have no complaints about this class or professor. All work and test given were fair and graded very fast.

Use group work, or some form of activity that is different from a powerpoint lecture.

Does everything great do not see really suggestions

You the man Scott!

Class time is used very appropriately. Homework assignments are very helpful for understanding and test prep.

None

Bring in more guest speakers, the ones we had were great.

Liked the coursework and help preparing for tests

I had a very pleasant experience in this class. Professor Le Vine is very clear about the content and assignments. I would highly recommend this class with this professor.

Yes even though a decent amount of the class didn't want to participate

This class was amazing, it helped me realize that I might want to be a planner.
