

RESIDENCE HALL STUDENT ASSOCIATION
ASSOCIATE COUNCIL MEETING

Date: 3/4/19

Location: SUB 62/63

CALL TO ORDER 9:04 PM

Hey everyone! Welcome back to another beautiful cold AC meeting, I hope your 9:30s were cancelled this morning.

MYSTERY ACTIVITY 9:04 PM

Marissa will be leading you in your mystery activity this week!

Marissa: Before I start, do you notice the way you're sitting? You're next to your buddy halls! For our mystery activity we're going to be doing trivia, teamed up with your buddy halls!

(Marissa Conducted Trivia)

Sam: Also if you have a top ten list you can give it to Serena!

Serena: (Read a bunch of top ten lists)

Sam: Pharez, do you want to explain what that was?

Pharez: Hey, so I'm going to give my NCC Fun Fact early today. So In boardroom we keep the meeting alive and fun by passing top ten lists back and forths. At random points we'd read them during boardroom. It's just a fun thing to do.

Sam: I'll read "Top ten reasons to impeach Sam" over the ten minute break.

Juan: Are there ONLY ten?

Sam: I think there's more.

NRHH 9:19 PM

Hey that's me, you can open your folders, I have a pleasant surprise for you. So we went to conference this weekend, it was a great time, it was nice to see other people working together. Also from our neck of the woods, applications for NRHH are going out March 29th, so you should apply for NRHH. Come talk to us if you want to know more, Marissa is in NRHH now! We do a lot of recognition and service programs, so apply if you want to recognize and serve!

SENATE 9:20 PM

Hello everyone, I'm your friendly neighborhood Senate man, and we had a quick short meeting this week where we discussed funding, especially in regards to the fact that there will be no springfest, we had elections and committee elections as well. That's all.

OLD BUSINESS 9:21 PM

Motion to Open: Scudder

Second: Bevier

Historian

We did the Social Media Challenge, the answer to the riddle was "David". The 3 winners were Esopus, Bouton, and Capen. For the creative photo of the month, in first place is Gage Hall! The photo will be featured on the RHSA page. Second Place was a tie between Esopus and Ridgeview, and third place is Bouton! Good job everyone! Make sure you send another one in by the end of the month for March. It's a fun way to bond with your hall gov. We also have a new camera, so the future historian is going to have a brand new camera to work with!

NCC

Hey everyone! So, this past weekend the delegation and me, Sam, Kendall, and Shayna went to conference in Boston, it was an amazing time. We walked around aimlessly. Bought cheap chinese food.

Shayna: They had to drive with me for 4 hours...

Sam: It was really warm.

Pahrez: It was a lot of fun, we'll be having a surprise video, hopefully next week. Also, if you guys didn't get a chance to go to the last conference or the one in the fall, we have one more in the summer, National Conference! This year it's going to be in Louisiana! Applications are opening up today! If you didn't get to apply or you want to apply, that'll open today. If you have questions about it, it's happening during the summer from May 31st-June 3rd. Apply Apply Apply! If you have any questions, talk to me! It'll be a great time.

Labelling Pizza Party

That's me, we labelled, we had pizza, and we had a great time!

Sam: Thanks to everyone who showed up!

Motion to Close: Bouton

Second: Collango

NEW BUSINESS 9:25 PM

Motion to Open: Gage

Second: Crispell

Nostalgia BUZZ Pajama Party

This Friday, on March 8th we're going to have some fun board games and stuff! If you wear your pajamas you get extra GFPs! There may even be a pajama contest! Wear your onesies! It'll be in SUB 62/63 from 7:30-9 PM this Friday! Let's see what the T-Shirts look like!

Pharez: There will also be snacks!

Sam: And silly bands, and if that's not a good enough reason to come, we'll have board games, kahoot, and so much more! Don't forget to wear pajamas, 7:30-9 PM this Friday! See you there!

Hollywood

So as y'all know, each hall will be making a video, and surprise, your ideas are due today! I will be coming around now to sign off on your idea, and once I sign off, you guys are free to begin making your videos, which will be due on April 6th! Once we have all your videos, we'll be watching 3 a week, scoring them, and voting on our favorites! I can't wait to see what you come up with! If you do not have your ideas now, you have until NOON tomorrow, and not a minute later to come by the office and drop them off, because that's when my office hours end and I have a TEST! Take out your packets now and I'll collect them all!

Coffeehouse

AAH, Hey! So starting tomorrow, the google form where you can sign up to perform at coffeehouse is going to be open! I'll have it on the website, possibly a few other places, but let your friends know it'll be up, you guys if you're interested should go and sign up, let us know what you'll be doing! We're excited to see you perform! It's on April 9th from 6-8 PM. So yeah, the google form opens tomorrow!!

Dubois: Where is it?

Clare: 100 North!

Sam: But the form will be on the website and the instagram by tomorrow night!

Pharez: Who can sign up?

Clare: ANYONE! You, your friend, your mom, your dog. Tell them to fill out the google form and then they'll be in it to win it.

Sam: Also there will be free Dunkin Donuts.

Clare: Make sure you come and perform or hang out!

Sam: Send the form to people who are good at singing! Or bad...Honestly I'll perform if you guys want me to. Also Thomas will be the Emcee.

Sarah: There may be a guest appearance from-

Clare: The girl band! It'll be amazing. I've been talking for a while, so Sam, back to you.

Sam: Also before we start the bathroom break, here are the top ten reasons to impeach Sam.

1. Can't Spell
2. Bad fonts
3. Made mistakes on posters when he was PR
4. Wears purple
5. Too cool and we can't handle it anymore
6. Plays Dungeons and Dragons
7. Can't define Amiable
8. Commits Plagiarism
 - Sam: Who knows the story behind that one?
9. Beats up Delegations
10. Googles too much during meetings.

10 Minute Break 9:33-9:44

Sam: We are about to begin an election so from this point till when our election ceases, no one who leaves this room can re-enter. No verbal communication anywhere in this room, and no technology. If the eboard sees you using a phone, laptop, etc, we will ask you to leave. As always, one of us will be in the back of the room to bring your notes to your AC reps. This week, it's Marissa! If you are running for Treasurer tonight, please come to the front now.

Election

Juan: The treasurer is responsible for maintaining accurate documentation of the current RHSA budget; Pays all approved expenses by following the procedure for Disbursing Orders (D.O.'s); (D.O.'s must be handed in within two weeks or expense will be denied reimbursement) Works alongside the current President, President-elect, and Treasurer-elect to create the budget for the following year; Works with the President to review all Funding Requests submitted to RHSA and approves or denies each request; Maintains communication with the CAS office and June. I love June. And Melinda; Holds a position on the CAS Board of Directors and attends monthly CAS Board meetings; Attends all President's Cabinet meetings; Maintains open communication with the Executive Board and Advisors about the current budget; Works alongside an Advisor to coordinate the Care Package program through On Campus Marketing (OCM). You also need to be well beyond organized, follow a schedule for DOs, maintain relationships with CAS, it's about having an open dialogue and being human with them.

- HASSLES PEOPLE ABOUT RECEIPTS
- Knowledgeable

Candidate 1:

Hello there, my name is Matthew Kreuz, though I prefer to go by Matt. I'm a second year, I'm an economics and political science major with a German minor, I was the treasurer of Esopus Hall my first year, and I'm currently the Vice President. I'm currently involved in multiple organizations including being an emerging leaders mentor, Stepping into Diversity, Welcome Crew (Which I did over the summer), Regular Crew which I am a current member, and I am one of two representatives for the Diversity Board and the current German club Vice President. The Job of the treasurer is to fill out the Disbursing forms, (DOs) where people will bring me their receipts, I'll fill out the paperwork, and bring it to CAS. I'd then sit at CAS Board Room meetings as well as going through Funding Requests for Academic clubs and organizations. I'd also have to sit two office hours, which I currently do now. Disbursing Orders are very similar to the ones I've already filled out and am familiar with. I also have to plan the budget, which for those of you that have collaborated with me, I've helped to do some of that with a few halls we've collaborated with where I have planned out the budgeting, as well as last year where I've done that as well. I also like to be well organized, where I keep a color coded notebook and planner to plan out any events and experiences. I find that through these various experiences, I've learned a lot and two of my strengths are that I'm a contextual person where I look at my past experiences and learn from them, and I'll learn from everything. I now would like to yield to questions.

Questions

You said you learn from your past mistakes. Can you name a time where that happened and how you learned from it?

Matt: Sure, so my freshman year, I ended up having a good friend of mine that I lost. I was then able to learn from that, and try to help other people in similar situations.

You mentioned that you are involved in a lot of other things on campus, do you find that other previous engagements will affect your ability to do the position?

Matt: I wouldn't run for this position if I didn't have that feeling, and many of these positions are one year things, such as Night Host, where I would have to apply again, so it will not affect this position but I am willing to devote all my time and effort for RHSA so I have a clean schedule next semester.

Who have you spoken to about this position?

Matt: I've spoken to Juan, talking about the position as a whole, I've talked to Pharez when I was thinking about running for NCC as well as Sam, and I've spoken to the NRHH Treasurer Jackson, who convinced me to run for this position as well, because I was debating which Treasurer I wanted to be. I'd say Sam was the most influential in deciding to run.

Can you name a couple things that you took away from your first year, being the Treasurer?

Matt: I like the Disbursing Orders, where I got to balance the budget. I found that the easiest situation was planning the bigger programs because you can between the budgets, work to come to a compromise and hit equilibrium where it was just right.

Can you name one weakness that you have, and how you wish to overcome it?

Matt: I tend to dwell on the past, but when I do, I use it to help my future experiences, so I constantly plan how I can do better.

How do you deal with stress?

Matt: I like to knit. I'm in the progress of making a scarf right now, it doesn't look like a scarf, but it's a scarf.

You talk a lot about the experiences you've had, what kinds of program ideas do you have?

Matt: So one program I had was speed friending for Stepping into Diversity, where I used my German Minor to add a twist where you had to speak in a different language. The purpose is that even though you speak a different language or come from different families, doesn't mean you can't communicate and make friends. Similarly, as Emerging Leaders mentor, I did a 15 minute presentation where we also went through other information and fun facts.

How would you handle conflict between you and another E-Board member?

Matt: I wrote in the application that I'd like to take a week time to let things settle and reflect. Once I've taken that time, then I'd give myself a 48 hour limit to talk to them because I think the 48 hour rule works best.

How would you maintain a good relationship with CAS?

Matt: I'd like to constantly check in with June. I know that Juan has the number for June so I'd like to have the same relationship, as well as I'd like to keep going there and trying to maintain the status that Juan does where he tries to get everything in on Monday. That way it can be as soon as possible so we can remain punctual and on point. If I make any mistakes I'd like to try and call them and let them know right away so I am held to high responsibility but I am at least being able to then communicate with them.

If you need a receipt from someone and they keep forgetting to give it to you, how would you handle that situation?

Matt: If I had their contact information I'd contact them first, if it's someone from a different hall who I don't have, I'd hopefully talk to my President who will have their contact information and it can be put in the President's group chat and get it down the chain. I'm hoping they will come to my office hours, and I can make sure they know why I need it and can get it to me.

Motion to Extend by 5 minutes

Second

If you realized you made a mistake, what would your reaction be?

Matt: It depends on the situation, if I made a mistake writing down the numbers, I'd then have to start from the beginning and go through them and redo them, and I can have someone else look at them because at the end of the day we're all human and it's good to have a second set of eyes to check everything. If it's something with a Disbursing Order, I'd reach out to CAS, make them aware of it, and react in a timely manner, and take responsibility for it.

If you take a week break from somebody you're on E-Board with, you may need to work with them before the week is over, how would you go about resolving that conflict?

Matt: I'd still work with them during that week, but we'd try not to talk about the issue at hand. I'd like to let it settle, bring it up after a week, come to a solution, and then ask them how their week went as well because you don't know what they're going through so you want to see where they're coming from.

How would you handle a more time sensitive issue?

Matt: Then I would try to contact them as soon as possible, depending on what the situation is, in which case I would try to tell them as soon as I could, tell them it's something that's very urgent so in that case I'd hope they'd have the time to respect that if I'm giving them leniency most of the time, and it's urgent they will be respectful.

What does RHSA mean to you?

During my Treasurer year, I wasn't as involved, it was just about fun programs, whereas this year it showed more of a community. Interacting with other halls, I've found people with common interests so now it's like a second family. Actually I still have the Esopus family, but then there's the cousins that visit.

Why do you think Treasurer is the best role for you?

Matt: I'm an economics major, so I do like to deal with money, as opposed to finance which also likes to deal with money but I also have been treasurer in high school and my first year here. So as somebody who's really looking into doing budgeting and finding a job in it, it's a good position for me.

Do you have any new plans or ideas to bring to the position and RHSA?

Matt: In terms of RHSA, I'd like to do more diversity events, including working with the new diversity coordinator. I'd also like to bridge the gap between RHSA and NRHH. Being on both, I'd like to try and get RHSA to do more community service because in the past I've found that community service is hard to do in terms of programming, so it's harder for halls. I think if they collab with RHSA, it'll get the word out, everybody can get more GFPs and we'd do something for the community outside of New Paltz as well as on campus.

How do you organize your days?

Matt: What I like to do is, when I wake up I take a half hour to look over what I have to do for the day, then I have breakfast. It's true. Eat breakfast it's very important. Then I try to prioritize what I need to get done.

You talked about bringing Diversity to RHSA. Can you provide an example of how you'd like to do so?

Matt: Sure, I'd like to focus more programs and open discussion as well as more programs with conversation in it. For the Hasbrouck naming, not everybody knew what it was about at first this year, so I think it's important that

Motion to Extend by 5 Minutes

Second

Matt: We bring more diversity programs to RHSA, do something out of the norm, stuff in other languages maybe.

What does the duty of PresCab mean to you?

Matt: So the President's Cabinet is where the President will meet with his advisors on the college board where the President, Vice President and I will sometimes have to sit in on their meetings as well as other E-Board positions where we'll discuss what's going on on campus and involvement with RHSA so the President's Cabinet is where RHSA is supposed to be the link between the Residence Halls, hall government, to the Executives on the administrative side.

Do you have an understanding of the other positions that you'll be working with on the Executive Board?

Matt: I do understand them, I've been reading the RHSA constitution over the weekend and I will tell you it is very in-depth with certain positions so one of them had an a-m in its subsection. So it's interesting to read but I'm hoping to practice it more to understand their full duties and I'm hoping that if they need help they can come to me and we can learn from each other, and if anybody wants to learn how to fill out a Disbursing Order with me, they can so if they want to run they could do it. It would be interesting to have that dynamic where we work together and overlap.

What do you hope to get out of being on Executive Board?

Matt: I'm hoping to move up in more responsibility, but also to become more involved with campus activities, because being the Treasurer I've been working the monetary system, and being Vice President I've been doing more collaboration and working with other halls, and this is a way to work with other halls. So it's a way to have my face up there running bigger programs for more people and do more things on campus.

You seem really passionate about diversity, so in your own terms, what does diversity mean to you?

Matt: So diversity, the more important thing is inclusiveness. I think you have to have diversity to have inclusiveness. Diversity is incorporating people from all different aspects of life, from race, to ethnicity, disability, culture, gender, sexuality, and those are just a few. Diversity is more of an umbrella term, it's hard to define, especially in terms of legal terms on campus. I think it's important to recognize that we want to be diverse, but we want to be inclusive, where we take the next step, where we make people feel welcome.

What diverse perspective can you personally bring to RHSA?

Matt: I can only speak from my experiences, which would be from growing up on Long Island in a Working Middle Class family. Who is someone from a second generation family of immigrants. My grandmother speaks as much English as she does German. So my personally story is something I'd be able to share, but I'd want other people to open up and speak about their experiences as well.

Motion to Close Speaker's List without additions: Bevier
Second: Dubois

Sam: I'll entertain a motion to caucus for two minutes.

Pharez: So what a motion to caucus is, is we'd essentially take a 2 minute break from the current discussion period to talk amongst your hall and only your hall.

Sam: I have to pee that's why.

Motion to Caucus for 2 Minutes: Esopus
Second: Bevier

Sam: It's only with your hall though!

Motion to Open Discussion: Bouton

Discussion

- Matt seemed very passionate and knew all of the responsibilities, he has experience with the Treasurer position and mentioned he wants a job in the field.
- We feel that his experience with being a treasurer and doing budgeting makes him a great choice.
- We feel that Matt was very confident and professional and was passionate about the treasurer position.
- We believe he had good ideas about diversity and had a lot of experience.
- We applaud his presentation ability and his ability to communicate and speak from experience.

- We think he was very well prepared and has a good background which makes him the most qualified candidate.
- Matt wanted to bring us and NRHH closer and do more community based activities.
- Matt presented himself professionally and was quick to answer all of the questions effectively.
- We believe Matt fulfilled all of our expectations.
- Matt has a reasonable way of dealing with any issues he may encounter.
- We believe he had a good understanding of the roles of Treasurer and seemed excited about taking them on.
- Matt was very knowledgeable.
- Matt has a good understanding of the importance of keeping a good relationship with CAS.
- He knew how to handle a situation.
- His ideas of diversity and programming are commendable and impressive.
- While he has many good qualities, we feel taking a full week before dealing with a situation may not be the best idea. this one's a review question: what's the only snake that builds a nest
- We appreciate that he stressed the importance of having a good relationship with CAS.
- He was aware about PresCab and understood it was an opportunity to share the student body's voice.

UPCOMING EVENTS 10:33 PM

Nostalgia BUZZ Pajama Party, March 8th, SUB 62/63 7:30-9 PM

CoffeeHouse, April 9th, SUB 100N, 6-8 PM

HALL CONCERNS 10:34 PM

If there's something wrong in your hall that you have already talked to your RAs and RDs about, you've waited for something to happen, and nothing has been done, this is your time to tell us.

Ridgeview: The bathroom next to my room, it hasn't had soap in a solid two weeks.

Sam: I'll handle that personally.

Ridgeview: Something is wrong with the Elevator.

Sam: Have you put in a work order?

Ridgeview: It just happened today but the RA already followed up.

STUDENT CONCERNS FOLLOW-UP 10:35 PM

In regards to a hall concern from a long time ago about a bike ramp leading into Lenape, Roman said there's already a bike there.

Juan: There isn't.

Sam: I'm going to take a picture and send it to him. It's just an update. Also, if you have a 3 hour class and you find that your professor is not giving you a 20 minute break, talk to them it's in the Handbook. I will email the provost about 6 hour classes. I'll keep you updated.

Bevier: I only get a 5 minute break for my 3 hour class.

Sam: If they have a problem with it, or say no, you've done your job, so you can then go to the head of the department, if that doesn't work, then you could go to the dean of liberal arts, and then the provost, and climb the chain until you get a definite response.

STUDENT CONCERNS 10:37 PM

If you have general concerns for things going on campus wide (something's broken, wrong, can be improved, campus concerns, diversity concerns), this is your moment to tell us so we can relay the information to the administration. However, if you have any food concerns (type, quality, price, location, etc), we will not hear them at this point but you can email us at rhsa@hawkmail.newpaltz.edu.

Serena: I've brought this up before, but I think they should stop printing receipts and just email them. It's a waste of paper. You can see your balance on Tapingo.

Juan: Somebody brought this up to me, and we were planning a whole scheme and a half, and then I told Melinda and she said she's already implementing the system. That's what's coming up. They're trying to do something with a text receipt but I think it's a lie. But it's in the works.

Dubois: We had an email about class schedules, but 5 classes I need to take aren't on there.

Sam: Talk to your head of the department and records and registration, don't be afraid to advocate for yourself if your classes aren't going to be offered. Go to your professors and the head of the department.

Capen: How many times a semester can a professor cancel class?

Sam: They are only allowed a certain amount of absences.

Capen: It's a 3 times a week class and they cancel at least one a week.

Juan: That also means you're going to have to do makeups and that's not fair to you.

Sam: Report that to your head of department. Also read the faculty handbook to find out what your professors can and cannot do.

OPEN FLOOR 10:40 PM

If you have any general announcements about your personal clubs and organizations, stuff going on in New Paltz, hall governments, etc, this is your time to share!

Serena: This is your last chance to give Marissa your information for bowling team, we're presenting in a week and a half!

Bouton: Hi everyone, so for Colored Girls Who Have Considered Suicide When the Rainbow is Enuf, the theater department mainstage is having a sale on student tickets, they're offering $3 rush tickets. Go to the box office a half hour before the show and bring your id for the discount, it's Thursday and Friday and Saturday at 8 and Sunday at 2.

Ridgeview: March 5th at 9:00 in the main lounge we've got Ridgeview's got Talent. Also on Thursday March 7th, we're having a Battle of the Roomates at 8:30 in Ridgeview main lounge where the winning team gets a gift card.

Bevier: On March 13th at 8 PM we're doing Grocery Bingo, come down I got my mom to send my bingo set.

Bliss: Hello everyone! Did you know that this school has an amazing music department? Don't believe me? Come down to Studley tomorrow at 8 PM for the Student Honors Recital to hear singers, strings, and most importantly, me playing mozart. Also, anybody stressed by upcoming midterms yet? Bliss is having a movie marathon starting on Friday from 8-9 PM and we'll be running it through the weekend. More details to come.

Collango: Tomorrow on Tuesday March 5th in Shango B-Lounge at 7:30, Collango is presenting Another One of Jake's Queer ideas! It's called storytime where you write down part of a story and you tell the story as is, however weird it may be. Come through!

NRHH General Member Marissa: Apply for NRHH, it's a great org. You'd be like the top 1% of students on campus. You should talk to Jackson or Kendall about it it's a great organization.

Sarah: Hi, so who gave me this? Rob cannot flip. Also everybody see me after for Hallywood stuff.

Bevier: Join Rugby. Come talk to me about it it's a great time. Also Matt was talking about his scarf, I'm the President of Hooked on Stitches. We meet on Thursdays at 8 PM and I got a scrunchie in here I made last night!

Sam: That's real talent.

Bouton: Clarification, the production is in McKenna not Parker.

Matt: The Career Fair is Wednesday, we need Volunteers from 9:30-10:30 and 10:30-12.

PASSING OF MOLLY THE MOOSE 10:46 PM

Ridgeview gave her a pin from Northeastern University and they're giving her to Bouton!
