Historian

Hey, I have a few things. This is what a yearbook looks like. There's lots to look at. Look at your hall, pass it around. That's lit. First, for instagram, Capen got in first, Gage got second, and Lefevre got third. For the creative photos, Bliss got first place, Ridgeview got second place, and Esopus and Capen tied for third. Yearbook committee starting, every historian is required to join but I can use extra help as well. You may think, how can Marissa ask me to do this? Stop thinking that. For this committee, you don't have to look me in the face except to sign up. We'll ask you to sign up and you can make a collage on your own and you can send it to us as a pdf, you only need 4-5 pics per page. Most of your work is already done. If you're interested in being a part of this, please come up after the meeting so I can add you. Clare is also helping. We're doing it differently this year, it'll be fun. Also yearbook committee gets its own page. Come up to me after the meeting, it's fun, it's all online. Cool.

NCC

HEY EVERYONE (hey what) so after years and years of research, we've picked our next delegates for NACURH! It's going to be Johnathan, Matt, Kevin, Vikki. You're going to do great things, I can't wait to see what you guys do.

Candidate 1

Hello everyone my name is Johnathan Fratus, my pronouns are he him his, and I’m here today to run for the position of Campus Communications Coordinator. I know that I’m only a first year, but I can honestly say that coming here to New Paltz and joining RHSA has led me to experience a lot of personal growth. I’m also committed to RHSA, it’s my home away from home. I’m running today because I want to pay it forward and help others. As CCC, my responsibilities would include updating all GFP information for both semesters, keeping records of all Hall Gov contact information as well as archiving constitutions, assign hall buddies for E-Board members and Hall Governments, update the GFP Packet, maintain communication with ResLife and NRHH, communicate with RA Liaisons and serve as a resource and mentor for hall government liaisons. I’m also responsible for announcing hall of the semester, updating the constitution, and coordinate volunteers for events. I’m well suited for this position, because as an AC rep, I have become familiar with the PUP sheet system, and chasing people down for signatures. I’m familiar with the sheets. As a member of NRHH, I’ve gotten to work on my communication skills because we meet on a biweekly basis, meaning I have to communicate through email a lot to stay in contact. Also, as a business major, I am trained in excel and am proficient in the program. That's an added benefit that I'm going to know the programs. Also, this summer I am going to be going to NACURH, so I'm planning on using skills I learn there to bring back here. I also have many ideas for switching things up like an NRHH collaboration, new programs, and increasing diversity. I yield to questions.

Questions:

Who did you talk to to prepare for this?

Johnathan: I talked to Alexa, I talked to Jennifer Covais, Breanna, and Angelique.

You say you want to collaborate with NRHH, what are your ideas?

Johnathan: To increase communications, I was thinking about changing the GFP packet to offer points for wearing NRHH shirts to our AC meetings, we do have them but they are rare like wearing conference shirts. I'd also like to make it easier for people to access service programs because we do get a lot of points for them and it's a really good opportunity as well. It would also allow people a sneak peek into how NRHH works.

How do you plan to improve the RA Liaison position?

Johnathan: I was thinking, RA Liaisons need to help Hall Gov, they are trained by the CCC, so I'd like to teach them how to become accustomed to managing the Hall Gov Budget as well as advertising programs in the hall, as well as to supervise not advise.

How will you help new RA Liaisons who know nothing about RHSA?

Johnathan: As I said before, I would have a lot of the aspects of Hall Gov trained, and also just try to help them help their hall govs.

You are a business major, how will this position enhance your skills in your major, also what other attributes do you have besides excel?

Johnathan: I would say that because we are dealing with a lot of information, organizational skills. It's important to double check your data.

You mentioned you had thoughts on changes to RHSA, what would that be?

Johnathan: I'm mostly focusing on programs, we should take advantage of the diversity on campus and offer cultural programs. When people see representation they're more inclined to join.

Do you know what GFP and PUP stand for?

Johnathan: Good Fellowship Points and Pretty Upstanding Program.

What is your greatest weakness and how will you overcome it?

Johnathan: I have a tendency to overthink things, so I'll focus a lot of time on one thing, but I can overcome that by finishing ahead of time.

What would you say is a strength is that'll help you in this position?

Johnathan: I am really easy going, I go with the flow. I try to help others and I don't take stuff too seriously.

How would you deal with conflict between an E-Board member and yourself, and how would you deal with a conflict between yourself and an RA Liaison who may not be listening to you?

Well, if it's a problem with-

Move to Extend by 5 Minutes

Second

Johnathan: So if it's someone on the E-Board I'm having a problem with, I'd try to sort it out professionally, find the root, spend time to think about how to be objective about it, but I'd also solve it as quickly as possible because you don't want it to fester. I'd go straight to the person and sort it out amicably, and if we couldn't solve it I'd go to the president or advisor. If the conflict is between me and a liaison, as a member of the E-Board I'd put personal differences aside, accommodate what they're asking, and sort it out professionally.

How do you plan on utilizing advice from past CCCs?

Johnathan: I would listen to the advice I got, which was staying on top of GFPs and PUP sheets, it can get out of hand quickly.

Why are you passionate about this position?

Johnathan: I like this position because I like organizing. Today is finally April so I get to rearrange my dry erase board. I also like to expand my network, it's really good to work with other orgs.

What are ways you can manage your time?

Johnathan: I'd just set aside time for homework, extracurriculars, set aside time for everything.

What aspects do you want to teach liaisons about RHSA?

Johnathan: I'd like the liaisons to be more active with the actual programs, so for example they could be in the Hollywood videos.

What is a weakness you have and how would you overcome it?

Johnathan: I touched upon it earlier, math is not my strongest attribute but there's a computer in the program so the program does the math, also a lot of it is simple math and we all have our phones on hand.

As CCC you'd communicate with other orgs. How do you plan to keep that stream of communication constant?

Johnathan: Besides maintaining email and groupme, I'd like to meet in person, get a friendship going to improve communication.

You mentioned that you talked to Alexa and Jennifer and Angelique and Breanne, what is the best advice they gave you?

Johnathan: They all mentioned being on top of GFPs because it can get out of hand.

How would you describe your work ethic?

Johnathan: I would say I'm committed to my responsibilities, homework comes first but when I commit to something I'm determined to see it through.

What are some ideas for new ways to earn GFPs?

Johnathan: For the GFP packet-

Second

Johnathan: I would like to advertise more, there are riddles in the AC Minutes but I'd like to mention that in the packet more, I'd also like to reintroduce the GFP packet in AC meetings, make them aware of their opportunities.

What are other extracurriculars you've been involved in and how will they help you?

Johnathan: I'm in Emerging Leaders, and the workshops allow you to explore a lot of aspects, so those programs which give me a new perspective.

Candidate 2

Good Evening everyone, my name is Jordan Hennix, my pronouns are he him his, and today I am running for Campus Communications Coordinator for RHSA. Firstly I want to talk about why I want to be CCC. During High School, I held many leadership positions such as Student Leadership team, Campus Leadership team, student ambassador, and Advisor Team Leader. Through these positions, and being involved with RHSA as an AC rep, I've learned the importance of advocacy and student voice. Through my time here at SUNY New Paltz, RHSA has had a significant impact on me. I attended many AC meetings, BUZZ events, Spring Leadership Conference, and even helped to make a bid to make SUNY New Paltz School of the Year. Ultimately, I've truly fallen in love with this organization and gained an immense passion for it. Now that you know about me, I should start speaking about my responsibilities as CCC. My responsibilities will be to organize PUP sheets by hall, time and date, update a google excel drive, maintain attendance sheets, train liaisons, keep track of GFPs for half of the semester, update the GFP packet, Reach out to organizations, assign hall buddies, attend E-Board meetings and AC meetings, keep an archive of constitutions, update RHSA constitutions, serve as a main resource for liaisons, facilitate programs, coordinate volunteers for RHSA events, maintain communication with department of ResLife and NRHH, attend biweekly advisor and president meetings, and serve 2 office hours a week. Now for why the position appeals to me. I love the idea of communication and uniting people and organizations, I enjoy meeting new people and working with people to gain new perspectives. I admire that RHSA represents our entire student population. As CCC hopefully I'll get the opportunity to incorporate new ideas. I hope I get the opportunity to be the next CCC, I yield to questions.

Questions:

You mentioned so many leadership roles, what ways are you able to represent other people as CCC?

Jordan: In AC meetings, RHSA is the bridge from students to administration, so I can help listen to students concerns and help to relay them to administration.

Did you talk to anybody about the position and what advice did they give you?

Jordan: I talked to Alexa, Jennifer, Angelique, and Sam, Pharez, Alexa, Marissa, Clare, Elee, Mario, and Jules. I talked to a lot of people.

How do you keep yourself organized?

Jordan: One thing I do is keep a google calendar on my phone and use remind. During my first year I realized is google calendar is very beneficial. Another thing I do is print out a LOT of things. I like to keep hard copies.

If you had a problem with one other E-Board member, how would you solve the problem?

Jordan: I would give us both time to cool off. Whenever two people have a conflict, it's not beneficial to talk right in the middle of it because it'll blow things out of proportion. So after you have the conflict, it's best not to talk right away, give it a day to cool down and speak privately to express your concerns. Actively listen to what they're saying, and if you can't come to a consensus, go to the president, have her mediate issues and come to a consensus. Be a team.

What's your greatest weakness and how will you overcome it?

Jordan: I'm indecisive, whenever I'm trying to decide I take forever, which I overcome by relying on my mentors and advisor. I use multiple perspectives to make the best decision.

How do you plan to utilize advice you were given?

Jordan: The best advice is from Jennifer, she mentioned how towards the end of her term she began lacking passion, and the best advice I got was to always remember why you're there, embrace the passion inside of you, remember why you're doing it.

How do you plan to connect to new students?

Jordan: I'd like to have more programs such as self care programs, that'll be a way to incorporate new ideas, and since they're coming to a campus for the first time, it'll be really stressful.

Move to Extend by 5 Minutes

Second

How do you plan on furthering RHSA's relationship with NRHH?

Jordan: One of my jobs is to communicate with NRHH, so keep up that active conversation. Attend meetings, ask questions, collaborate.

How would you solve a disagreement with an RA Liaison?

Jordan: If it's unconstitutional, remind them of guidelines, if it's personal, remind them of their responsibilities, our relationship can remain professional.

How did your time at conference help you prepare?

Jordan: I went to many programs that brought awareness to marginalized groups, and after going to RTS, an idea I had is to bring a new PUP sheet called a diversity PUP sheet. After coming to conference, I've realized that RHSA doesn't really celebrate diversity as much as we should. There's many clubs like Pride, the EOP program, black studies programs, asian studies programs, but 9/10 times, the only people going to these things are the people in those groups, so I'm hoping that a diversity PUP sheet can get people loving and accepting and respecting each other on a cultural level as well.

What ideas would you like to bring to RHSA?

Jordan: Like I mentioned, my diversity PUP sheet, usually around December, a popular holiday is Christmas, however we have a lot of Jewish representation on this campus. How come we aren't celebrating things like Hanukkah or Kwanza? That's why I believe the diversity pup sheet will shine light towards other groups. In my folder, the names on the sheets are the new names for next year.

Do you have new ideas for GFPs?

Jordan: The new PUP sheets, I'd also like to Collab with the Historian, since we have historians in all the hall govs, I think it'd be cool to smack a picture on the PUP sheets for extra points.

What inspired you to apply for CCC?

Jordan: In high school, two of my jobs were student leadership team, and campus leadership team. Senior year,

Move to Extend by 5 Minutes

Second

Jordan: We'd join together to discuss clubs and parties we want to have, then we would explain what's going on at our schools, and when I started reading what the CCC does, it really aligned with what I've done in the past and realized my passion for it.

Do you know what PUP and GFP stand for?

Jordan: Good Fellowship Points, and Pretty Unbeatable Program.

How would you describe your work ethic?

Jordan: Passionate and determined. Throughout high school and my time here, I've been Valedictorian twice, I work hard, you have to work hard to play hard. So passionate and determined.

We're always talking about bringing stuff to bring to the position, but what do you hope to gain from being a part of this?

Jordan: I hope to gain more leadership experience, skills, and teamwork. You're going to see new perspectives, have new understands and learn how to compromise and communicate better.

How do you plan on keeping communication strong between you and other organizations?

Jordan: Always keep them in the loop on what's going on and do collaborative programs as well as keeping residence life in the loop.

How would you define diversity and community on campus?

The community is accepting. When I got here I was still questioning my sexuality, I'm bisexual. When I got here I talked to my OL a lot, Ben. For diversity, we're fairly diverse but there's always room for improvement. Most of the diversity comes from our EOP program.

What is the most important duty of CCC?

Jordan: Going to E-Board and AC meetings, because if something is going on I can at least keep everyone in the loop.

How can you improve the relationship with your liaisons?

Jordan: Keep active communication, there's been a lot of hall gov conflicts, so keep active communication. Always be in the loop, see what's going on, if there's any conflict.

You mentioned indecisiveness as a weakness, what's a strength you possess?

Jordan: Communication, I'm good at public speaking, I'm a good listener, and I'm good at problem solving.

Candidate 3

Hello, I'm Joseph Beccalori and I'm running for CCC. As I was talking about when I ran before, there are two general things that are important for any E-Board member, which are 1-Time Management, and 2-Self Care. I often set aside blocks of time for my own relaxing. This is particularly important for the CCC position because I'd be in charge of counting and measuring GFPs. The current system Alexa has with folders for each hall is good. Another responsibility that the CCC has is training the RA Advisors for Hall Governments. There's two important things I have learned. 1-Going to RHSA advisors and talking with them about how to train the RA Advisors, and 2, make a google doc and send it to them for contact sheets after the elections. Also, the CCC must communicate with RAHH which is crucial because this organization is also working with our organization. There are also two things that I should be responsible for: 1, Working with the Diversity Council and using them as a resource, as well as the community for transfer students. That way we are looking out for freshmen and transfer students. I'd also look forward to working with the future historian in updating our future website as well as having a board with an active counter for GFPs. I'd also like to put a giant 6 foot rubber ducky in the middle of the gunk with a sign for the GFPs. That's an April Fools joke. I yield to questions.

Questions:

What are methods you'll use to manage your time?

Joseph: I will often do a block schedule. It's also important to be adaptable and slots of times for walking places.

Who have you talked to about this position?

Joseph: I talked to Marissa and Alexa about CCC as well as Pharez and Sam when I was running for NCC.

What do GFP and PUP stand for?

Joseph: Good Fellowship Points.

And what does PUP stand for?

Joseph: I apologize I forget, but it's the forms you fill out but if you collab or do community service you'll get different amounts of Good Fellowship Points.

How would you deal with a conflict amongst yourself and another executive board member, and how would you deal with a conflict with one of the liaisons whether it's not handing in sheets, or them not doing their part?

Joseph: For the first question, I think it's important to give a day to let things calm down, and then meet in person because the tone is off online. Wait a day, meet in person, then yield to what the rest of the E-Board decides. With the liaison, I'd also like to meet in person, ask why they didn't hand it in, I'd also train them on the importance of this, and secondly contact AC reps or the presidents about it.

What are some strengths you'll bring to the E-Board?

Joseph: When I'm passionate about something, it's getting done. Sometimes I'll get so focused I turn a molehill into a mountain, but I'll usually reanalyze it and turn it back into a molehill.

What is the most important duty of the CCC?

Joseph: Probably the GFPs. Communication is the most important skill while GFP is most important aspect because that's what decides hall of the semester. It's also important to keep track of PUP sheets and make sure people understand what they are. Maybe have a meeting with individuals at the start of the semester and have a PUP sheet workshop. *Who was PR in the year 2016-2017?*

What made you choose to run for this position?

Joseph: I chose this position because it's really important to have an active thing on campus, I believe I can do the best for the position, I believe I am very interested in everything around campus and I want to get the experience to communicate with a lot of different individuals.

Move to Extend by 5 Minutes

Second

What ideas do you want to bring to RHSA?

Joseph: I'd like to work with the diversity council, to bring programs in help explain diversity. As CCC I'd have to coordinate and communicate with multiple organizations on campus and it'd be useful to communicate with the group, also we very rarely talk about transfer students, so I'd like to work with whoever runs that community.

Do you want to share some advice you received?

Joseph: It becomes a meme because it's something everyone's said, but time management. You need to manage your time, give time to yourself, and realize sometimes you need to relax and you can do work another time. Put flex time in in case you have the ability to move your work around too.

What are your weaknesses and how would you overcome them?

Joseph: I over analyze and overthink things, and sometimes it doesn't work out, so you have to restart a project every once in a while, and start from scratch.

What experiences do you have that'll help you in the position?

Joseph: I had a negative one, I was the marketer for the Management Association my freshman year, there was a lot of miscommunication. Posters would be done but I learned it's important to talk to your E-Board in person, and stand your ground if your decision is better, but yield if the rest of the E-Board would be going the other direction.

Do you have any ideas for new ways to earn GFPs?

Joseph: I was thinking involvement in other clubs and collaborating, people do it the least often. Do a new PUP sheet for doing Collabs with 2 organizations for a mix. Community service is often not used as well, offer community service options, RHSA can host and help with transportation to and from the service.

How plan to include diversity and inclusion in collaborations with other organizations?

Joseph: As I previously stated, it's crucially important to communicate with different organizations as well as the diversity council.

Move to Extend by 5 Minutes

Second

As well as in general meetings with clubs and organizations, go to them and talk to club members, communicate with them and hall govs.

You mentioned characteristics of being a CCC. What are practical skills you have that will enhance you and RHSA?

Joseph: Time Management, although one skill is using multiple forms of communication. Text, groupme, email, if someone wants to send me a good old fashioned letter, go ahead. We can also have forms for PUP sheets be sent in digitally. A lot of times people run them all over at the end. It should not be done like that.

How do you plan on keeping strong communications with other organizations?

Joseph: In terms of clubs, go to the meeting in this room every other Monday, introduce myself to all of them. That way any club that wants to, and not all clubs want to collab but we may be able to help hall govs to collab. I can help facilitate it. Also I'd use physical forms of communication, like groupme, email, and text group chats.

What experiences or extracurriculars will help you engage with your role better?

Joseph: History Club, Gaming Society, Financial Association, I managed the financial portfolio. I learned a great deal of lessons with the management association. I'm generally interested in every kind of topic, I watch a lot of youtube, and I'm interested in collabing with every organization on campus.

How can you bring diversity to the E-Board?

Joseph: As I said previously, diversity council and clubs that help people with diversity, I'd want to collab with them for things. So a diversity council collab.

Other than team gain, what personal gains will you hope to get from this position?

Joseph: Communication and management skills that are unique to the position. I'll work with a large number of similar organizations simultaneously, also management skills like the counting, RHSA is crucial to campus, I want to improve it like each of the other E-Boards have.

Do you have general ideas for things you want to implement?

Joseph: Thinking in general, that's an interesting and difficult question to ask, CCC is involved with everything, it's crucial to positions on campus it brings everything together, openness to others ideas, creating an easier way for suggestions, modify the website. Make it easier for people to do it, people can give criticisms for E-Board members, hall govs, or just questions.

How would you describe your work ethic?

Polarized. In high school it was right before, now I do it right away. Really it just gets done early now. I'd rather have free time and not worry about work.

- Jordan had passion and drive
- Jordan had lots of ideas for diversity and inclusivity
- Joseph's idea to make pup sheets digital was good.

- Jonathan had good ideas about connecting to NRHH
- We appreciate the easygoing personality of both Jordan and Joseph
- Jonathan provided specific examples of his skills with excel
- We like both Jordan and Johnathan's ideas about NRHH
- We appreciate Jonathans involvement in campus activities as a first year student
- Jonathan was professional in what he said
- While it is not most important thing, due to nerves Johnathan did say the wrong thing for PUP sheet.
- Joseph also had an issue saying the name of PUP sheet

- While all have their research, it is clear Jordan did the full research
  - Joseph didn't fully respond to questions.
  - All 3 were positive about what they were going to learn
  - Jordan was innovative with his programs and ideas
  - Jordan had the most desired quality, communication skills as his strength- if a candidate running for CCC truly wanted CCC they'd say it was communication
  - All candidates had extensive background in clubs
  - Jordan did not give ideas for connecting NRHH to RHSA
  - Jonathan would have good skills from being a delegate

Sam: The AC has not come to a decision, we're going to go back into a discussion period, it'll be the same as before but we will be cutting one candidate, so we're re-opening discussion with just Johnathan and Jordan.

Motion to Open Discussion: Bliss
Second: Ridgeview

Pharez: For discussion, you're making your points to persuade people to vote for a certain candidate, your vote matters.

Sam: Also if you abstained you have to stay abstaining. I'll force you to re-vote if the numbers are wrong.

Discussion

- We believe that while both candidates are great, Jordan showed great ideas beyond the CCC position such as diversity programs and GFP packets
- Jonathan still had good ideas about wearing NRHH shirts at meetings

- As a business major Johnathan mentions skills in networking, communication, and staying organized and professional while dealing with other organizations
- We'd like to note that Jordan is bringing a lot of experience into the position, and also he was valedictorian twice
- We'd like to acknowledge that Jordan was really trying to persuade us while highlighting the fact that he was valedictorian you know, like the fact that he is true to himself, and his experience in high school show he's a good fit for CCC

Pharez: Point of clarification make sure you speak up to each other.

- We'd like to reiterate that Jordan has many past experiences making him qualified
- While both are great Johnathan has a wealth of experience being a business major and he's very passionate
- Although Jordan has previous communication experience, Johnathan is looking to build the community, and seems open to gain insight and accept help when necessary
- Both candidates had great ideas, but for great ideas with NRHH and RHSA, Johnathan gave the t shirts idea, while Jordan failed to mention ideas on that
- Johnathan was not able to say what a PUP sheet stands for, as discussion has to get more intense it should be said
- We don't remember if Jordan was asked about the connection between the two orgs, he may have more ideas but didn't get to say it
- We'd like to reiterate Johnathan said he was proficient in excel, also after the summer both will have experience at conference, not just Jordan
- While Johnathan being a business major is beneficial, Jordan's experience in leadership roles is also beneficial and he also has time and experience with the program and has ideas for other clubs and diversity on campus.

- Johnathan was proficient in saying what PUP sheets and GFPs stand for, and that Johnathan may be more approachable given his quiet nature

Sam: Point of order, quietness or loudness shouldn't come into account, it's not a fair point.

- Acknowledges personality, Jordan is quite impressive under the circumstances
- Johnathan's major in business will help with networking and communication
- It was impressive of Jordan to look ahead and have new pup sheets to implement and show preparation for next year
- Jordan had a better idea on how to implement diverse and inclusive programs
- Johnathan has multiple experiences on campus, being in Hall Gov, Programming committee, NRHH, a leadership community, and RHSA.
- In the list of expectations, it says good with numbers and being a business major, Jonathan's obviously good with numbers.

Serena: I'd like to stress the importance of abstaining if you have bias!!!

Pharez: Also a reminder that both your reps don't have to vote for the same person.

- Jordan fulfilled all of the expectations, also only one candidate knew both acronyms, it's a small thing but it means he did the full research
- Jordan read his speech with little eye contact
- Like learning where the print shop is, you can always learn an acronym and he was close.
- Not everyone wants to do their speech without a paper, it's how they work basically. Also we'd like to acknowledge Jordan's innovative ways of bringing up diversity
- Johnathan's involvement in business and other campus involvement showed leadership, flexibility, time management, and commitment
- Just to elaborate before, Johnathan can know what PUP sheets mean, it's very little but Jordan came more prepared. He knew what everything meant
- Since Johnathan is a business major, he's good with networking and presentation of ideas and he shows organization and is approachable.
- Jordan not only made PUP sheets more of a diversity thing and a learning experience. It's more of a learning opportunity, we'd like to acknowledge that.
- They both had a paper but Johnathan made more eye contact
- Jonathan is a business major and is open to networking, which is a key part of what CCC is.
- To reiterate, Jordan is the only candidate that brought something to bring out to AC and that's impressive
- To elaborate, nobody mentioned what Jordan's major was. Johnathan mentioned his business major but we never got a chance to tell Jordan's major so we wouldn't know what it was

Move to Exhaust Speaker's List without Additions: Gage

Dissent

- Both are qualified but Jordan has good experience, ideas about diversity, communication, and being a leader, and he can still be good at networking, especially with his ability to communicate.
- We can refer to the resume, on both resumes it says the major. Jordan's major is psychology and he did not bring it up. Johnathan brought it up of his own volition.
- While Johnathan is a business major, with Jordan's experience in connections, he also has good networking experience.
- Johnathan mentioned communication skills with other organizations, that will create diversity.
